

INLAND TRANSPORT SERVICE AGREEMENT

INLAND TRANSPORT SERVICE AGREEMENT ENTERED INTO BY

HAPAG-LLOYD (America) LLC, acting as agent for and behalf of HAPAG-LLOYD AG, HEREINAFTER AND FOR THE INTENTS AND PURPOSES OF THIS AGREEMENT TO BE REFERRED TO AS "HLAG"

AND

EXA S.A., HEREINAFTER AND FOR THE INTENTS AND PURPOSES OF THIS AGREEMENT TO BE REFERRED TO AS "VENDOR"

CLAUSES

FIRST: Purpose. The Parties agree that the VENDOR undertakes to furnish HLAG with the inland transport service, Containers to be delivered to its final destination as appointed by HLAG.

SECOND: Provision of Services. The VENDOR undertakes to provide HLAG with adequate service, sufficient Vehicles, and Equipment (tractor-trailers, platforms, mobile generators, and or chassis). HLAG undertakes to make use of the VENDOR's services provided the VENDOR promptly furnishes the number of Vehicles and Equipment required by HLAG in conformity with applicable laws and regulations, HLAG's its policies and operating procedures, and with the standards of service prescribed in THE SAFETY GUIDELINES which are attached in Exhibit B to this agreement and which, upon being duly signed by the contracting parties shall become an integral part hereof.

VENDOR undertakes to transport the Containers as soon as HLAG puts it at its disposal, and undertakes to deliver the Containers to the addresses and on the delivery dates which shall be expressly stipulated in the letter of instruction / work order / delivery release form; the address as indicated in the bill of lading to be issued by HLAG evidencing the carriage of the cargo. The provision of the services shall be conducted by the VENDOR with its own personnel, and accordingly, from this time forward it relieves HLAG of any possible liability which might potentially arise in regard to the service provided. Accordingly, the VENDOR undertakes to hold HLAG harmless against any claim which may be raised directly or indirectly by any of its employees.

THIRD: EQUIPMENT. For the intents and purposes of the preceding clause, the VENDOR shall use its own Vehicles and Equipment (tractor-trailers, platforms, mobile generators, and/or chassis) to comply with the stipulated purpose of this Agreement i.e., the inland transport service of HLAG's Containers.

When the VENDOR receives or delivers Containers it must update equipment (Container) status via HOD (Host on Demand) or E-mail / Fax to HLAG or its Agent. An Equipment Interchange Receipt (EIR) must be provided for every single Container moved. VENDOR must request a work order from Carrier or Agent in order to invoice transport move. If VENDOR observes any damage to the CARGO or Equipment/Container , it must immediately report it on the Equipment Interchange Receipt (EIR / see exhibit), recording the physical condition in which it is receiving the Container thereon; accordingly, the VENDOR shall be responsible for verifying that the Container is being delivered in good condition. VENDOR is responsible for signing and dating EIR. If the Container is damaged, the VENDOR must notify HLAG or Agent and make sure this is stated on the EIR reception document. If the VENDOR does not conduct said review, it accepts receipt of the Container in good condition and undertakes to pay for any damages and return it in the same condition. This includes the Container cleanliness.

FOURTH: Special Cargo. In the following cases the VENDOR must have special Vehicles to transport refrigerated cargo, hazardous cargo, and oversized cargo.

When the Container is refrigerated (reefer containers), the VENDOR undertakes to designate personnel who are duly qualified and trained. VENDOR shall be responsible for the handling and control of special Container. The VENDOR must report the Container temperature at the times of pickup and delivery.

For hazardous Cargo, the VENDOR undertakes to have all the permits required by the country's rules, regulations, and laws, as well as to comply with all the international standards on the subject, in addition to carrying the necessary documentation for the type of cargo it may be required to transport at any given time. In addition, the VENDOR must make certain that the Container it carries has hazardous cargo placards appropriate for the product. When the VENDOR picks up the empty Container, it must make sure it is free of placards.

For oversized Cargo, the VENDOR must have the current permits and licenses required by the standards, regulations, and laws in force to that end.

FIFTH: Consideration. HLAG, undertakes to pay the VENDOR the rates agreed upon by both parties for the provision of the inland transport service to which this agreement refers, which rates are stipulated in EXHIBIT A of this agreement; said exhibit also stipulates the form, frequency, and review of rates, and upon being duly signed by the contracting parties it becomes an integral part of this agreement. VENDOR undertakes to deliver the appropriate invoices to HLAG in compliance with all tax, administrative, and legal requirements pursuant to the applicable legislation.

SIXTH: Payment. The payment terms agreed are: 30 days actual as of the day HLAG receives the VENDOR invoices.

The VENDOR may under no circumstances and for no reason, including failure to pay for the services, retain the Container / cargo, whether or not it is HLAG property or is under HLAG lawful custody. Accordingly, the VENDOR expressly undertakes to deliver it in the same condition in which it was delivered by HLAG.

SEVENTH: Term. This agreement shall be effective for one year term, commencing as of the date on which it is signed. Should the contracting parties sign on different dates, the commencement date shall be the latter of the two dates of signature. After completion of the aforementioned one year term, the contract shall renew automatically, unless any of the parties gives the other written notice of its intention not to renew the agreement. The notice shall be sent 60 days in advance of the completion of the one year term. If automatically renewed pursuant to the above paragraph, the agreement shall continue to exist thereafter indefinitely until any of the parties gives the other notice of its intention to terminate the agreement. Such notice of termination may be sent by any of the parties, at any time, with 30 days in advance of the date of effective termination.

The parties agree that this agreement may be terminated at any time if any of the following events should occur:

- a) By written agreement of the parties.
- b) By HLAG, if the VENDOR fails to provide the services to which this instrument refers within the time limits and in accordance with the routes described in Exhibit A.

N/A

- c) By either party, if the other party is declared in bankruptcy or insolvency, or if all or part of its property is attached, or if it is closed down or its activities are restricted in the locations where it provides services pursuant to any kind of court order, administrative determination, etc.
- d) By either party, if the other party breaches any of the material obligations assumed pursuant to this agreement or commits any default which is a ground for its rescission in accordance with the Law.
- f) By HLAG, when the VENDOR is involved in any kind of unlawful act or violation of the applicable laws.
- g) By HLAG, when the VENDOR fails to comply with any applicable anticorruption laws, rules or regulations.

EIGHTH: Quality of Operation. VENDOR undertakes to comply with the quality and operating standards demanded by HLAG, which are stipulated in THE SAFETY GUIDELINES attached in Exhibit B of this agreement, which upon being duly signed by the contracting parties shall become an integral part thereof.

If the VENDOR fails to comply with the quality and operating standards stipulated in the aforementioned SAFETY GUIDELINES Exhibit B and that fact generates extra costs, they must be covered at all times by the VENDOR, which undertakes to hold HLAG harmless against any claim or charge.

The VENDOR may not store the HLAG Containers at its facilities unless this has been expressly agreed to in writing by the parties; in that event the VENDOR undertakes to send HLAG daily reports on the Container at its facilities.

VENDOR agrees, acknowledges, and undertakes not to use HLAG's Container to ship third parties' cargo; to do so, the VENDOR must notify HLAG and its Agent of the number of empty container so that HLAG may instruct the VENDOR as to when it may permit the container's reutilization, understood as the fact that an export cargo is paired with an import cargo or vice versa, or that an import or export cargo is paired with a domestic cargo.

NINTH: Delivery. The VENDOR expressly undertakes to comply with the established transit times, except when prevented by Force Majeure (as defined in clause Seventeenth below). Any act of God, force majeure or delay must be immediately notified by VENDOR to HLAG's representative in writing, indicating the new estimated date and time of arrival of the Container at its destination.

If the delay is due to a mechanical breakdown, the VENDOR must send another vehicle at its own expense so that the shipment may be transported within the agreed transit time. The VENDOR must deliver the empty Container to HLAG within a maximum of 24 hours after having picked it up.

TENTH: Care and Custody. VENDOR accepts full responsibility and liability for the care, custody, and control of the Containers which have been delivered to it, from the time it receives them to the time they are received by HLAG or its Agent.

The VENDOR expressly undertakes to hold HLAG or its Agent harmless against any claim or lawsuit, whether civil, mercantile, labor, administrative, criminal, or fiscal in nature, which may arise from the provision of the service of shipping the Equipment / Containers/ Cargoes, regardless of the time elapsed since the date of the provision of the services, as well as to immediately inform HLAG or the Agent by telephone and in writing of any accident, theft, or detention of the Container.

ELEVENTH: Non exclusivity. This Agreement does not grant exclusiveness in favor of the VENDOR. VENDOR may therefore offer the services to third parties and HLAG may request the services from third parties.

June 29, 2017
AC

TWELFTH: Notices. VENDOR expressly undertakes to immediately inform HLAG or the Agent of any accident involving the Containers by telephone and in writing, and undertakes to salvage the Containers involved in said accident as quickly as possible and at its own expense, after completing the appropriate procedures vis-à-vis the authorities, and to deposit it at the place designated by HLAG or its Agent. The VENDOR undertakes to pay all kinds of lawful expenses and fees which may be generated during said salvaging of the Containers, including payment for tow truck services, and to procure the Container release by the authorities when detained as a consequence of a casualty.

In the event of expenses or legal fees which must be paid by HLAG for any reason, the VENDOR must reimburse it for said expenses or fees within a period not exceeding 10 consecutive days from the date of request for reimbursement.

THIRTEENTH: Assignment of the Agreement. The VENDOR may not assign or transfer this agreement, nor all or part of its rights hereunder to any third party, without HLAG's prior written consent.

The VENDOR may in no way encumber, assign, lend, or furnish for use the Containers to any third parties. The VENDOR shall indemnify and hold harmless HLAG for any losses or damages of whatsoever nature HLAG may suffer due to VENDOR's failure to comply with the previously mentioned obligation in respect to Containers. The indemnification prescribed in the preceding paragraph must be paid to HLAG within 15 calendar days from the date of invoicing thereof by HLAG.

FOURTEENTH: Ownership of the Containers. For the intents and purposes of this agreement, the parties expressly agree that the Containers which HLAG and/or its Agent furnish to the VENDOR shall be deemed to be HLAG property at all times. Accordingly, in the event of theft, accident, or loss, the VENDOR shall cover the entire amount of the resulting costs.

FIFTEENTH: Insurance for VEHICLES. VENDOR undertakes to insure the Vehicles it owns and with which it provides the service against liability for damages to third parties' property (including CARGOES) and/or person, including consequential damages, and it undertakes to hold HLAG harmless from any claim against it which may be raised by third parties for the use of the Container or the acts of operators thereof, regardless of the time elapsed since the date of the provision of the services; accordingly, it undertakes to keep insurance policy providing coverage of any of aforementioned casualties in force throughout term of this agreement. The VENDOR must have a minimum insurance coverage of U.S. dollars $80,000 per any one accident or occurrence (AOAOO). A copy of the policy in question must be sent to HLAG prior to start service. In any case established hereto, insufficiency of insurance coverage shall not exempt the VENDOR from its full responsibilities and liabilities under the terms of this contract.

SIXTEENTH: Insurance for the EQUIPMENT (CONTAINERS) and CARGO. HLAG, for its part, undertakes to insure the equipment (containers). The VENDOR must have a minimum CARGO insurance coverage of $80,000 USD per any one accident or occurrence (AOAOO). A copy of the policy in question must be sent to HLAG prior to start service.

The VENDOR, after due investigation and in accordance to local insurance legislation, shall be responsible for paying for any damages, whether total or partial, in cases where the casualty has occurred due to negligence by the VENDOR or its operators, employees, etc. In that event, the VENDOR undertakes to pay for any damages, whether total or partial, suffered by the Equipment (containers) and cargo within ten (10) calendar days after the presentation of the claim by HLAG or its Agent, and if payment is not obtained within said term HLAG may deduct the amounts owed from the VENDOR. In the event of damages or any casualty, the vendor likewise undertakes to pay HLAG for Equipment (container), even when insured. In any case established hereto, insufficiency of insurance coverage shall not exempt the VENDOR from its full responsibilities and liabilities under the terms of this contract.

M.J.

SEVENTEENTH: Force Majeure. If either of the parties is unable to perform any of its obligations, including but not limited to any obligations to pay or compensate costs of any kind, under this agreement by reason of force majeure, those obligations of that party shall be suspended for the duration of the force majeure. However, the party shall use all reasonable efforts to mitigate the effect and consequences thereof. This suspension of obligations shall not apply to obligations to effect payments due except where the banking system has been disrupted.

No liability shall be attached to either party if its obligations under this agreement cannot be performed due to such force majeure including but not limited to Acts of God, war, even if undeclared, government regulations, terrorism, civil commotion, strikes or lock-outs or act of piracy which are beyond the control of the parties.

EIGHTEENTH: Confidentiality. The parties hereto agree upon keeping the most absolute confidentiality with respect to any data, information, material, details, innovations, trade secrets, brands, inventions, technical and commercial specifications, documentation, financial data and clients' data among other (hereinafter "the Information"), to which it may have access to or knowledge of, or which may have been confided to it because of this Agreement. The parties hereto also commit not to reveal, reproduce, use or make available under any circumstances, as well as not to allow any of its employees and/or contractors to make use of the said Information, except if strictly complying with their obligations under this agreement. The confidentiality obligation herein agreed to by the parties will remain in force during and after the expiration Date of this agreement.

Except as required by law, the existence of this agreement shall not be disclosed nor its contents divulged to any third party hereto without the written consent of the other party.

NINETEENTH: Notifications .For the purposes of hearing and receive all kinds of notifications and communication related to the present contract, the contracting parties indicate as their respective domiciles the following:
